

Fire Sale of Cattle

Having lost my barns and hay by fire, caused by lightning, I have decided to offer my entire stock of cattle for sale.

100 Choice Registered and High Grade Cattle

The herd is headed by JUNE'S BOSNIAN, a Jersey of exceptional merit, two years old. HIS SIRE AND DAM BOTH IN REGISTER OF MERIT. He is worthy of a place in the best of herds, and invaluable to the breeder desiring to improve his stock.

One of his sons will be offered in the sale, also a beautiful yearling son of my former herd bull, ISLAND STAR.

TWELVE REGISTERED COWS, nearly all to freshen this Fall. FIVE REGISTERED YEARLINGS, all in calf to JUNE'S BOSNIAN.

FIVE REGISTERED CALVES, daughters of JUNE'S BOSNIAN. SIXTY-FIVE CHOICE GRADE COWS AND HEIFERS, many of them to freshen soon, some of them fresh this Summer.

THIRTEEN CHOICE GRADE CALVES

Nearly every animal offered is under five years of age, and the result of years of the most careful breeding to improve my stock.

No large dairy in the State can show a larger percentage of high producers than you will find here.

The Day—Tuesday August 28
10 A. M.

The Place---The E. & T. Fairbanks Co. Cow Barn

The Auctioneer---C. F. SMITH OF BARRE

Come and buy at your own price

Refreshments will be served

GEO. H. GRAY, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

DANVILLE.

Gardens Destroyed By the Storm--

Several gardens in the south part of the town were totally destroyed by the severe hail and electric storms during the past week.

Although the reading given by Rev. Mr. Douglas of West Burke at the M. E. church last Thursday evening was greatly interrupted by the heavy thunder storm and the extinguishing of the electric lights throughout the village, selections were greatly enjoyed.

Leslie Hardy and daughter, Miss Corinda Hardy, spent the week-end in Boston. Mrs. Lesley of Johnson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. G. French, last week.

Mrs. C. H. Wilson has been ill the past week. M. U. Adams and family and chauffeur of Newton, Mass., are at their summer home here in town. Diamond Chapter, No. 14, O. E. S., will hold their regular meeting this, Wednesday, evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hopkins of Holliston, Mass., and Mrs. T. J. Cree of Concord, N. H., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Ingalls. The C. E. Society has purchased an Honor Roll for the names of those who have enlisted from this town. It will be hung in place next Sunday morning.

Next Sunday morning Mr. French will preach on the theme, "Christ's Faith in Men." If you and your family will attend it will help to make an audience of 200. Washburn Lodge, No. 92, F. & A. M., will hold a special meeting for the conferring of the second degree on Thursday evening of this week.

Mrs. Edna Crawford and Mrs. Alva Shute visited Eugene Gouchee at Fort Ethan Allen the first of the week.

Mrs. T. S. Bartlett of Wells River is visiting her sister, Mrs. Della Hunt. Earl Fisher, Clyde Green and Henry Danforth were at home on a furlough from Fort Ethan Allen over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danforth visited their sons, Albert and Henry Danforth, at Fort Ethan Allen the first of the week. Austin F. Smith left town Monday for Windsor.

Mrs. John Hibbs and Miss Ella Page of West Newbury, Mass., are the guests of their brother, A. F. Page, and family.

Ads Are Store News--ADVERTISE

Horse For Quick Sale or Exchange

Fine Golden Bay Driver $150 Cash, or will exchange for cattle.

Age 12 years. Apply Lakeside House Joe's Pond, West Danville

WEST DANVILLE.

(Mrs. E. F. Ayer, Correspondent.) to St. Johnsbury Tuesday. Miss Mildred Renner of Burlington is visiting in town as the guest of Mrs. C. H. Palmer. Miss Bertha Daniell returned Friday night to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, where she will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Mildred Gile is spending a few days with Mrs. Walter Swett. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littlefield of North Williamstown, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardy of Brookline, Mass., have been spending a few days at George Cook's. Andrew Johnson and family of New Haven, Conn., are occupying the Taft cottage. Marshal Dunbar of Walden is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Dunbar. A large truck was brought from Hardwick Tuesday to use at the electric plant. William Brickett returned to St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

NORTH DANVILLE.

(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.) Mrs. Louisa Clifford visited Mrs. Charlotte Sanborn part of last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Irvin Ranney of Barton were recent visitors at his brother, H. E. Ranney's. Mrs. Jane Perry of Danville visited Mrs. F. J. Hubbard last week. Eric Emmons has finished work at St. Johnsbury and is at home.

Mrs. Manty Palmer visited Mrs. J. P. Weeks part of last week. Miss Jennie Gadapee and Harriet Adams are visiting in Burlington.

Isaac Stanton met with quite an accident Saturday by a limb falling on his head in the woods and cutting it so that Dr. Ross of St. Johnsbury took several stitches. He is doing well at this time. Several attended the North church last Sunday to hear the Rev. J. L. Long, who preached there.

Miss Edith Clifford visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clifford, part of the week. Miss Catherine McDonald of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her. Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Stanton entertained several of their friends Saturday evening.

Madam Peck of Wolcott is visiting her niece, Mrs. Lucian Stanton. Mrs. Ella Brown, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Eva Langmaid, has returned to her home in New Hampshire.

NEWARK.

(Porter Wallace, Correspondent.) On Sunday forenoon Aug. 19, Rev. Glenn Douglass preached an interesting and helpful sermon, taking for his subject "Life." Sunday evening Mr. Johnson spoke in the Union church. He used for his subject "After the War, What?" Mr. Johnson speaks in the same place next Sunday evening at 7.30. His theme will be "The Wounds of My Friend." Mrs. Fred Simpson is visiting her daughter in Newport.

Mrs. Howard Mosher recently visited her uncle, William Melcher, in Sutton. Little Esther Moulton has been very sick, but is now better. Mr. and Mrs. Mando Gordon and daughter of Boston spent a part of last week with Mr. Gordon's brother, L. D. Gordon. Mr. and Mrs. Tom LaFean and son, Oscar, recently visited at Lisle Washburn's in East Haven.

Farmers in this section are getting discouraged trying to make hay. Much hay is out and the rains have injured its quality. Miss Dorothy Rice, who has been visiting her cousin, Mildred Ball, has returned to her home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Eugene Annis and little daughter of Island Pond recently visited Mrs. Mary Annis. Miss Avis Stockton of Boston accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bean and family visited at John Austin's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace of West Burke are staying for a few days with their son, Porter Wallace.

Porter Wallace has received his appointment from State Highway Commissioner Stoddard M. Bates to superintend the construction of the state road in this town for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bean and family spent Friday with Alonzo Bean in Lyndonville. Mrs. Nettie McCoy has been staying a few days at her brother, Porter Wallace's.

Wilbur King has bought a farm in East Burke and expects to move there the first of October. His father, D. W. King, now of West Burke, will move to the farm vacated by him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gray and Mrs. George and son of Manchester recently took an auto trip through Dixville, Coaticook and Standish Plain, Que.

The recent rains have so badly injured the roads that it will require much labor and money to repair them. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wallace and daughter, Mabel of Island Pond visited at Porter Wallace's Thursday.

Miss Cobb, a canning expert, gave a canning demonstration in the Grange hall on Monday afternoon.

EAST BURKE.

(Mrs. B. F. Humphrey, Cor.) Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey of St. Johnsbury Center were Sunday visitors at W. H. Jeffrey's.

Ruth Jeffrey has returned from Portland, Me., where she has been visiting relatives.

Ruby, Freda and Gerald Perry of East Pepperell, Mass., are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Counter, and calling on other friends in town.

Frank Powers from North Danville and Mrs. Emma Abbott of Nashua, N. H., have been visiting Mrs. Charles Cole, Sr., and at Fred Lund's the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wyman returned Saturday from North Haverhill, N. H., and Brattleboro, where they have been spending a week with their sons, Chester and Albert.

Earl Chamberlain is working for George Hubbard. Mrs. Waters and daughter, June, returned Monday morning to their home in New York City, after spending a few days at W. H. Jeffrey's.

Mrs. George Riley and daughter, Beulah, have been visiting Mrs. Georgeanna Kimball at Centerville. Mrs. Henry Swanwick and little sons have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Chappell at Barton.

Miss Eva Fereau from Providence, R. I., is visiting Mrs. Joseph Denonville. Mrs. Howard Gorham is at Ocean Park, Me.

Miss Frances Damon of Lyndon is keeping house for her during her absence. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Colby and son, Earl, were in Passumpsic Sunday.

Percy Keniston was home from his work in Peacham for the week-end with his family. Mrs. Paul Houghton is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rockman Page, in Victory.

W. H. Jeffrey was home from Montpelier with his family for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. John Stafford of Lyndonville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Drown, Sunday.

Mrs. H. D. Webster was called to Enosburg Friday by the death of an aunt. Mrs. Mary Murkland of Barton is visiting Miss Louise Darling.

Mrs. Mabel Vance spent the day Friday with friends in Lyndonville. Mrs. Mary Belden spent a part of last week with her sisters, Miss Sadie Morse and Miss Alice Taylor, in Lyndonville.

Mrs. Nellie Caswell, who has been seriously ill, is decidedly better. Mrs. F. J. Whitcomb of Lancaster, N. H., is visiting her niece, Miss Louise Darling.

Warren Drown, Ernest and Grover Allard and Roy Smith were in Wenlock blueberrying the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Roland Harvey and daughter, Dorothy, were recent visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harvey.

Mrs. Nellie Kittredge, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Burdington, returned to her home in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Frank Davis' three children, Claude, Howard and Perley, and Miss Glen Streeter of St. Johnsbury were Sunday visitors at B. W. Streeter's.

Miss Louise Guyette returned to her home in Lyndon Friday morning, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Senterbury.

Curtis Harvey of New York City is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith and baby, Alfred, and Mrs. M. L. Smith of Lyndonville spent Sunday at F. E. Temple's.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brigham and son, Merle, and Mrs. Abbie Colby were Sunday visitors at F. C. Harvey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Smith have returned to their little cottage at Cosy Bend, Lyndonville, to their farm in Pinkham.

Adelbert Rabator and family have moved to the farm in Charleston which they recently purchased. Mr. and Mrs. William Layley of Lyndonville were Sunday visitors at his brother, John Layley's.

MILES POND.

(Elta Brown, Correspondent.) Mrs. W. Carpenter and daughter, Josie, and Irvin Brown were Sunday guests of I. H. Brown.

Ray Brown was in Burlington and Island Pond last week. L. Eastman recently visited Levi Thomas.

Harry Young and Rufus Young were home over Sunday. Earl Isham was in Miles Pond Sunday.

Bert Boutain was home from Burlington, recently. Mrs. George Dane and daughter, Ruth, recently visited at Mrs. O. W. Boutain's.

Miss Flossie Boutain was home over Sunday. E. A. Fuller was in St. Johnsbury last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Guss Grant and daughter, Helen, are at C. F. Breakwood's cottage. Fred Thomas and Leva Thomas were in Concord the past week.

George King was a Sunday guest in this place. Miss Fuller and brother have returned to their home in Claremont, N. H.

Mrs. Fuller and daughter, May, are visiting at Ed. Fuller's. Raymond King and Leo Brown, Ed. Fuller and Roy Brown were in Lancaster, N. H.

Mrs. Cora Thomas and Albert Fisher were at Fred Thomas' Sunday.

LUNENBURG.

The Red Cross Wants Women to Knit for Soldiers--Locals

(F. F. Balch, Correspondent.) The Red Cross received $21 as their share of the moving pictures under the management of Carroll and Donnell, last Wednesday. The society has received yarn and needles and Mrs. Etta Turner or Mrs. Charles Thomas will be glad to know of any who will knit for soldiers, either sweaters, mufflers, wristlets or socks.

Mrs. Cora Cheney Adams of Derby and Mrs. Etta Cheney of Berlin were recent guests of Mrs. M. D. Bowker and other friends and former neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pond accompanied their son Delmer on his return to Fort Ethan Allen on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Frank Finley and three sons of Lancaster spent last week with her sister Mrs. Earl Lewis.

The lawn party which was to have been held with Miss Annette Bell at Riverside Farm, South Lunenburg, last Friday evening was an indoor affair because of the rain but none the less enjoyable.

A good number were present considering the wet night and those who were well paid for the effort. Rev. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and children of Dover have been visiting his parents, went to Old Orchard, Me., on Friday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Spaulding and son of Concord, N. H. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spaulding and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Currier.

Mrs. Fielding Smith of Lancaster spent a day with the Morgan family last week.

Mrs. S. T. Norris is visiting her mother Mrs. Julia Wilson, in Barton for a week.

Messrs. Lang and Fletcher of Lancaster were Heights House guests on Friday. Elias Lowery was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury on Saturday.

Madison Nichols was at home Sunday from the camp at Concord N. H. and Fred King from Fort Ethan Allen.

Frank O'Shea and Patrick Murphy of Lancaster were in the village the first of the week looking over the switchboard at the central office and preparing for cable work.

Misses Ada Dustin and Edith Peck of Decatur, Illinois, are the guests of their uncle Mitchell Silsby.

Miss Lucy Hudson of Brooklyn, N.Y., came on Saturday for her annual visit to Lunenburg and is the guest of the Heights House.

Mr. and Mrs. Selden Blakley of New York City, are stopping at the Heights House. Miss Mildred Blakley is the guest of Miss Anna Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale of Lyndonville are guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Bowker.

Many of our townspeople are enjoying the Chataqua gathering at Lancaster this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fervis Lewis 2nd, and children of Littleton were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Carpenter.

LOWER WATERFORD.

(Mrs. G. A. Ballou, Correspondent.) Mrs. George Bolton is stopping with her niece, Mrs. E. B. Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Blodgett and children of Lyndonville were recent visitors at A. E. Blodgett's.

Mr. Reith of Brooklyn, N. Y., is stopping at the hotel with his wife and son.

Miss Hazel Watson of Newport visited at Irving Watson's last week.

Mrs. Celia Farrington of Cabot was a guest of her niece, Cora B. Goss, last week.

L. C. Lance of Cabot is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Halsey Bullock.

Mrs. Wright went to Littleton last week to visit her son, Nelson Wright.

Dr. Gibson of Barnet was in town one day last week.

and Mrs. Samuel Stoddard came with him and called on relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bonnett and two children and Miss Abbie Hale and E. E. Hale motored to Barton Sunday and called on relatives.

Raymond and Mervyn Morrison and Merle Goss and Albert Cilley motored to Mt. Washington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bullock and C. L. Lance motored to Maidstone Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hemingway visited relatives in Barnston, P. Q., and Burke last week.

Reuben Morrison and three daughters and Miss Catherine Morrison and Miss Freda Gibson and Harold Walker of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at G. A. Ballou's.

STANNARD.

(F. K. Bartlett, Correspondent.) Miss Esther Magoon of New York is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith.

M. J. Grant visited his mother, Malinda R. Grant, in Hardwick last Friday.

Raymond Blodgett, who has been ill the past two weeks, is gaining.

Carl Wilson's children have been ill with the measles.

We Still Have a Few Mowers Left

Buy now as Prices next year, everywhere will advance $20 to $25 on every mowing Machine.

One Man in Danville that used to require two hours to do his milking does it with a

PERFECTION MILKING MACHINE IN 40 MINUTES

You want the best when you invest in a milking machine. An imperfect machine will cost more than a man but the Perfection machine will save the wages of a man and pay for itself in one year.

Let us show you what hundreds of users say of the Perfection machine.

J. W. GILLIS,

Danville, Vermont

Sole Agent for Caledonia County

One new Empire Milking Machine at a special price.

All kinds of Agricultural Implements and Supplies

Prices are right